

RAFTING EUROCUP AUSTRIAN CHAMPS WILDALPEN 2019

The IRF Rafting Eurocup and the official Austrian Championships will take place on the river Salza in Styria. The rules of the International Rafting Federation IRF category R₄ regulate the championship. Each competition (sprint, head to head, slalom, downriver race) gets points. The Rafting team with the most points after the last race in the category R₄ will be the final winner.

There will be different classes (U19, U23, Masters) if there will be three teams or more per category, if not, all teams will start at the open category.
